THIRTEENTH YEAR.

HAZEL GREEN, WOLFE COUNTY, KENTUCKY, THURSDAY, JANUARY 13, 1898.

NUMBER 42.

WOLFE COUNTY.

Swango Springs Sayings.

Arberry Swango spent Saturday night in Toliver neighborhood.

Harry Cecil, of Grassy, was visiting in this community Saturday and Sunday.

D. B. May, of White Oak, spent a few days of last week in this neighborhood, talking business.

Mrs. Arberry Swango and little son Oliver spent most of last week discussing the "Toliver Topics."

Henry and Chester Lowe, of Morgan county, are visiting their brother, Lark Lowe, of this neighborhood.

Jan. 11.

UNO.

Daysboro Doings.

J. Monk Hollon was in town Monday.

Alex Shockey was in Daysboro Sunday.

Jack Wilson was in town one day last week.

C. B. Amyx went to Campton Friday, returning Sunday.

Miss Lane Taulbee, of Red river, was in Daysboro Monday.

Willie Jones, of Hedges station, was in Daysboro Monday.

Monroe Lacy, of Lacy creek, was visiting in this neighborhood Sunday.

Mrs. Anthony Lowe, near this place, has been very sick for a few days.

Newt Maloney and John Brown, of Laurel, were in Daysboro Monday.

Mrs. J. H. Sebastian was visiting her daughter, Mrs. Clay Lacy, Sunday.

Herbert Nickell and wife were visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Lacy Sunday.

Belt Sherman, of Campton, was in this neighborhood buying fur this week.

Misses Carrie Amyx and Nora Scott were visiting Miss Emma Fallen Sunday.

Willie Rose, of Lee City, was in this neighborhood on business one day last week.

Our efficient circuit clerk, J. F. Vansant, of Campton, was in Daysboro on business Monday.

James Wilson on Monday moved to his father-in-law's, Trumbo Nickell, on Grassy, near Sellers.

Oscar Fallen and wife, of Lee City, were visiting friends and relatives in this vicinity last week.

Mrs. J. W. Taulbee returned Monday from a visit to her mother, Mrs. Capt. Cope, of Breathitt county.

Henry Lowe, of Minnesota, and Chester Lowe, of Morgan county, are visiting their brother Anthony, near this place.

J. H. Sebastian and Holly Nickell swapped horses one day last week and Mr. Sebastian also bought a horse for which he paid $45.

Will Hogg, colored, surprised his friends one day last week by going to Letcher county and bringing back a bride. Her name is Celia Adams.

We are reliably informed that Henry Shockey has traded his farm just below Daysboro to Boon May, of White Oak. We gladly welcome Mr. May to our midst, but we regret to see Mr. Shockey leave, and can say to the people of White Oak that they have gained a good neighbor.

One day last week Harry Higgins bought a hound from John Gibbs, for which he paid $8, and the same day swapped hound pups with Jack Wilson and gave him a hog that weighed 175 pounds to get him to trade with him. Harry says "Taint worf finding out who gets de best in a dog swap."

Miss Nora Crucey, in company with her brother, Thomas Crucey, passed through Daysboro Monday on her way to Lee City, where she will enter school. Miss Nora is already a good scholar and we predict that another term at John W. Taulbee's school will rank her among the teachers of Wolfe county.

Our young friend, H. E. Oney, was visiting at the home of ye scribe Saturday night, and informed us that he would leave for Winchester on the 23rd inst., where he will attend college. Eddie, as he is called by his friends, needs no recommendations, as his manliness will speak plainer than our weak words.

Jan. 11.

CHARLIE.

Toliver Topics.

Wm. Clark & Son have their new store house completed.

Berry Pieratt, of Ezel, passed through Toliver Saturday.

Mrs. Celia Neff has been visiting her parents at Omer this week.

Bern, to the wife of Wm. Toliver, a girl. Weight, two pounds.

Wash Luis, a citizen of our neighborhood, has moved to E. Kash's.

Mrs. Jane Oldfield was the guest of Mrs. H. A. Mannin Saturday and Sunday.

Willie McClannahan has moved from Wm. Clark's to Mrs. Cindy Oakley's farm.

Boone Oldfields, of Grassy, was the guest of W. A. Oldfield's Saturday and Sunday.

Wm. Shoemaker has bought a new supply of blacksmith tools and is ready to make the anvil roar.

Nelson Mannin and wife, of Omer, and charming little daughter, Jennie, were visiting relatives and friends in Toliver Tuesday and Wednesday.

The meeting is still in progress at Sandfield, conducted by Rev. Doan, McGuire and others. May there be some good work done in the sight of God while they are with us.

Jan. 11.

SHINER.

Campton Currency.

C. B. Lykins has returned from Lexington.

Miss Margaret Shackelford was in town Saturday.

Wm. Combs, of Lexington, is spending a few days in our town.

Breck Amyx, of Daysboro, was in town Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Bowman, of Torrent, came up yesterday to enter the academy.

Capt. W. L. Hurst and his son Haniel spent a few days in Jackson last week.

Prof. C. J. Nugent returned Saturday night from a visit to his parents at Bedford, Ky.

A. F. Byrd, the new commonwealth's attorney, is attending to his duties at Beattyville court.

The sidewalk around S. S. Combs' store will be a great improvement to the town when completed.

Quite an interesting meeting is in progress at this place now, which is doing a great amount of good.

The second session of the school at this place commences today with brighter prospects than ever before.

J. F. Vansant had Miss Florence LeMaster sworn in as deputy circuit court clerk, on county court day.

Rev. Mr. Word, of Hazel Green, preached a most interesting sermon at the Methodist church Sunday night.

H. H. Gish, of Mt. Sterling, is making an extended visit to his aunt, Mrs. J. F. Vansant. He is talking of attending school here.

It would not only be an improvement to the town, but a kindness to the people, if some of the enterprising citizens would think to put a few street lights along just to relieve the monotony, especially on very dark and disagreeable nights.

Jan. 11.

MRS. GRUNDY.

MORGAN COUNTY.

Jamba Jangles.

Ernie Little was buying geese here Tuesday.

Dick Franklin has rented Mack Walters farm.

J. M. Pieratt, of Hazel Green, was in this vicinity on Monday.

Miss Maggie Rose, of Lacy creek, is visiting her grandfather, S. W. Cecil.

D. M. Murphy is at West Liberty. He is one of the board of supervisors.

George Drake made a rake in th Jamba Tuesday and took out two jangles.

Mrs. Miles Bishop has returned from Floyd county, where she has been visiting for several weeks.

The road up this creek along by the Murphy farm will soon be impassable. Now, some of those, or all persons who make it a habit of looking after other people's business, should communicate this to the county judge, eh?

The Christmas tree trials at Grassy creek have been heard. Only one was fined, the remainder being acquitted. It resulted and showed on trial that some of the boys were brought before the court for a slur on their good name. The law, when used rightly, is indeed sweet, but when malicious persons use it to bring reproach on the good names of others, it is a curse. We do not know who the person or persons were that swore out the writs. It is a fact that there are others that were there who created more disturbance than did Mr. Yocum, who was fined, and these lads go unmolested. Hence such inconsistency, creaks the crows.

Ezel Evolutions.

Too late for last week.]

F. M. Prater is visiting relatives at Omer.

Eddie McGuire is visiting relatives in Magoffin county.

Mrs. Annie Bailey is visiting her grandmother at Paris.

B. F. McGuire has gone to West Liberty to be appointed deputy clerk.

Married, on December 30, Pene Pieratt and Miss Lula Dennis, Elder J. H. Fugate officiating.

T. I. and F. M. Prater and M. H. Power and wife were the guests of J. M. McGuire and wife Saturday night and Sunday.

CHAS. BUCHANAN,
Practical Boot and Shoe Maker,
HAZEL GREEN, KY.

Ladies' & Gentlemen's Fine Shoes
Made to order. Special attention given to repairing, and satisfaction guaranteed. Shop at Old Racket Store.

B. F. McGuire and W. B. Barker bought the farm of T. I. Prater for $1,100. Mr. Prater now resides at Aden station, Carter county.

Mrs. Zillie Power gave a birthday dinner Friday the 31st of December. She killed a fat goose and had an excellent time. Mrs. Power is 25 years old and been married 12 years.

Frank Prater has employed J. T. Power to clerk in a store at Gates, Rowan county. Frank is running two stores now, and if he has no bad luck will be rich in his old days.

Jan. 3.

TOMMIE.

HOW TO FIND OUT.

Fill a bottle or common glass with urine and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates a diseased condition of the kidneys. When urine stains linen it is positive evidence of kidney trouble. Too frequent desire to urinate or pain in the back, is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

WHAT TO DO.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills every wish in relieving pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passages. It corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to get up many times during the night to urinate. The mild and extraordinary effect of Swamp Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists, price fifty cents and one dollar. For a sample bottle and pamphlet, both sent free by mail, mention THE HAZEL GREEN HERALD and send your full post-office address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. The proprietors of this paper guarantee the genuineness of this offer.

Wanted, 1,000 Men,

Women, Boys and Girls to subscribe for THE HERALD for the year 1898, and that I may secure them at once, I will, for the next Thirty Days take them at

Fifty Cents a Year,
PAID IN ADVANCE.

THE HERALD

is the oldest, most popular, most widely circulated, and most quoted paper in the mountains of Eastern Kentucky, and acknowledged by press and people to be the acme of American country newspapers. It gives

ALL THE NEWS

ALL THE TIME,

and is so popular with the people, and so reliable withal, that it is nearly always referred to in the endearing term, "DEAR OLD HERALD."

No other local paper in Kentucky ever attained a national and international reputation to equal it, and no other local paper in Kentucky boasts a lady contributor from across the briny deep. We have two. And for the present year 1898 THE HERALD promises to be

BETTER THAN EVER BEFORE!

Though the price is but half. This offer is open to all new subscribers and all old ones who pay up arrearages and one year in advance. Those on the list who are now in arrears will be taken off unless at once renewed under this offer, which will be in force

FOR THIRTY DAYS ONLY!

Don't wait until the time is up and then abuse us for not extending it. The time to subscribe is NOW, and then you are assured of having the paper paid for for 12 months, and of receiving it 52 weeks. Subscribe today, and tell all your neighbors how cheaply they may receive the paper and save the trouble of borrowing! At the low price of no person can afford to not take it, and we shall expect every one of our friends to bring one new subscriber each, at least. Go to work, friends, and help us to make our list of paid up subscribers even 2,000. If all our friends will heartily help us, we will have them before 30 days are up.

+STATE SIFTINGS.+

It is believed in Frankfort that Todd will be surveyor of the port.

President W. G. Frost, of Berea college, was seriously beaten by a student.

Charles Warfield, of Russell county, was granted $384, back pension, and $6 per month.

Populists in the legislature will not combine in the state librarian fight, but go into the Democratic caucus.

Miss Lizzie Hunt will be appointed postmaster at Sulphur, Ohio county, vice L. W. Hunt, her father, resigned.

Fish Commissioner Brice notified Senator Debee Friday that he had deposited a quantity of black bass in Crystal lake, near Ryland Station, Ky.

At Orlands, a station on the Kentucky Central railroad, near Mt. Vernon, W. C. Hundley shot and almost instantly killed John W. Lawrence.

In the Warren circuit court Will Hay was sentenced to one year in the Frankfort penitentiary for shooting and wounding Will Haggin some time ago.

The legislature adjourned Friday until Monday, when Speaker Beckham announced the committees and Senator Goebel named the steering committee.

Prof. Wiley, of Lexington, was fined $300 at Frankfort Friday, in the U. S. court for sending low and vile advertising literature through the mails.

Mrs. Settle, wife of Congressman Settle, since her return to Washington, has been critically ill. She is threatened with pneumonia, but was better Friday.

Ex-Congressman McCreary in an interview in Washington says the Eighth district nomination should be made solely with a view to party harmony and success.

New postoffices were established in Kentucky Friday as follows: Flannery, Johnson county, Dora Lemaster appointed postmistress; Lucy, Magoffin county, Dennis B. Collins.

It is likely that Louisville will have a May music festival. At a meeting of the Commercial Club Friday evening several thousand dollars were raised to be used for this purpose.

Gov. Bradley has appointed S. A. Newall, of Somerset; Bayle O. Rodes, Danville, and P. M. McRoberts, of Stanford, commissioners for the Deaf and Dumb Asylum at Danville.

The most disastrous fire Paducah has had for a quarter of a century broke out at 3 o'clock Friday morning in the mammoth collar manufacturing establishment of E. Rehkopf & Sons. The loss is $50,000 to $75,000, with only $4,000 insurance. Over 85 men were thrown out employment. The buildings were of brick and were furnished with costly machinery in every department.

A dispatch from Salyersville, dated the 7th, says: Deputy Collector H. N. Atkeson and posse made a raid on moonshine stills on Rockhouse creek, this county, and succeeded in finding three in running order, which they destroyed, but they were unable to find the operators, as they hid themselves in rocks and in cliffs, and fired on the posse from several places; but no one was hurt, however, except Mr. Atkeson, who fell over a cliff and sustained painful injuries. There has been a gang of moonshiners in that part of the county for several years, but on account of the desperate character of the men no one would undertake to molest them. This is the most successful raid made in years.

THE HERALD.
SPENCER COOPER, : : : Editor.

HAZEL GREEN, KY.
THURSDAY, Jan. 13, 1898.

THE assessor of Shelby county has finished his work and filed his report with the supervisors, which shows the taxable property to be $7,729,335, or just $70,000 less than last year. The difference in value represents the amount of McKinley prosperity enjoyed in that county.

SENATOR TELLER declared in the U. S. senate Friday that he has no personal fight against the president, but that he proposes to do all in his power to destroy the Republican party because it is a gold standard party. Don't, Mr. Teller, old fellow; because that would knock prosperity into "pi."

COL. J. R. GARRETT, late of Georgetown Enterprise, has bought an interest in the Corbin News, and will hereafter have charge of the editorial department of that paper. Mr. Garrett has been in the newspaper business a long time, and with his experience he should make the News a first class paper and himself a plethoric purse.

THEODORE DURANT, convicted of the murder of Blanche Lamont and Minnie Williams, was hanged at San Francisco Friday. He walked to the gallows as proudly as though heading a bridal procession, never for a moment lost his nerve, and with his last breath protested his innocence. He was convicted upon circumstantial evidence, and as has many times proved the case, may have been an innocent victim of another's viciousness. Time alone can tell.

MORT SWANGO, of this place, is the coming politician of this part of Kentucky, judging from his race for janitor in the lower house of the legislature. Todd Hall, the "old harmonizer," thought he had a cinch on the place, and was telling his friends that he had no opposition. Mort appeared on the scene, however, and the aspect of things was at once changed. Indeed he had the harmonizer beaten ere the old man realized it, and beaten very badly, his vote being 61 to 13 for Mr. Hall. But then Mort, it should be remembered, is a chip off the old block, which his name is Judge G. B. Swango, and he couldn't help but be a winner, with such breeding and training.

IN THE U. S. senate Friday Mr. Allen, the Nebraska Populist, offered a resolution declaring that the United States should without delay and without waiting for the consent of foreign nations begin, and thereafter maintain the free and unrestricted coinage of silver dollars at the present legal ratio of 16 to 1; that such coinage should be supplemented by a safe and sound paper money, to be issued directly by the government and without the intervention of banks, to be a full legal tender for all debts, public and private, and to be issued in an amount sufficient to meet the business demands of the people and restore the just level of prices of labor and production; that an increase of the public interest bearing debt should be prohibited, and that all laws authorizing individuals to demonetize or discriminate against any form of money by private or special contract should be repealed.

THE many friends of H. C. Herndon, formerly of this place, will rejoice to hear that he was last week appointed a division deputy collector by Collector Roberts, an account of which appears elsewhere. Mr. Herndon was postmaster at this place for eight years, master commissioner of the Wolfe circuit court under Judge Lilly, and last but not least, at one time a valued attaché of THE HERALD. From here he moved to Paintsville, where he started a Republican paper, and under the Harrison administration was appointed to the same place he now holds, and at the expiration of his term of service, having sold his newspaper plant, he located at Catlettsburg. Collector Roberts is to be congratulated in securing the services of Mr. Herndon, whom he will find a good man, and true. We have tried him.

For THE HERALD,
THE SOLDIER BOY.
Dear mother, as I lay to night,
Upon my blanket bed,
Near by the camp fires flickering light,
Whilst stars shine overhead.
My thoughts oft wander to that home,
Where last I saw your face,
When you and I were left alone
In one sweet, fond embrace.
Tomorrow I to battle go
Upon yon mountain height;
With courage I shall meet the foe,
So pray for me tonight.
Pray to Him whose conquering love
Can check the battle's fray;
And bid the soldier look above,
Where all is bright as day.
And should I fall by sword or shell,
And dying, I may be;
My thoughts will on my mother dwell,
So pray tonight for me.
SAM WILSON.

THE present session of Hazel Green academy promises to be the greatest in its history. Already the enrollment is the largest it has ever had, and students are coming in every day to matriculate. The Home, where all students board, is now comfortably full, but Prof. Cord, with his usual enterprise, has arranged to accommodate all who come, and parents who send their children to this school are assured of the fact that they will come in contact with no contaminating evil influence. Their guardianship here is as safe as under the parental roof-tree. More so, in fact, for Prof. Cord and his able corps of assistants watch every move of each student and check any tendency to indiscretion instantly. It is truly the only boarding school in Eastern Kentucky, and one of the best and cheapest educational institutions in the state. It has more graduates now holding first-class certificates as teachers, or otherwise engaged in lucrative employment, than any other school east of Lexington. Those desiring to do their duty by their children will make no mistake in sending them to Hazel Green academy. Write Prof. Cord for terms, etc.

W. "FEWLOTHES" SCHOOLES, of the Morehead Advance, which, by the way, has recently been enlarged to eight pages, is dancing around like a boy with his first pair of red-top boots because his town has a bank. But there'll be "a hot time in the old town" when you want to borrow, Billy, and you'll find the institution wonderfully convenient for "furnish" to collect if you're unfortunate enough to owe 'em anything.

THE Louisville Dispatch of Saturday was so stuck on the story, "Twice a Hero," from the Atlanta Constitution, that it published it in duplicate.

Just before the late November election some one took from my horse a pair of fair leather saddle bags. Through a friend I have located them, and if they are returned where I can get them that will be the end of it. If not, some one will have to prove the possession.
DR. J. A. TAULBEE.

THE NEW WAY.

WOMEN used to think "female diseases" could only be treated after "local examinations" by physicians. Dread of such treatment kept thousands of modest women silent about their suffering. The introduction of Wine of Cardui has now demonstrated that nine-tenths of all the cases of menstrual disorders do not require a physician's attention at all. The simple, pure taken in the privacy of a woman's own home insures quick relief and speedy cure. Women need not hesitate now. Wine of Cardui requires no humiliating examinations for its adoption. It cures any disease that comes under the head of "female troubles"—disordered menses, falling of the womb, "whites," change of life. It makes women beautiful by making them well. It keeps them young by keeping them healthy. $1.00 at the drug store.
Wine of Cardui
For advice in cases requiring special directions, address, giving symptoms, the "Ladies' Advisory Department," The Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn.
W. I. ADDISON, M.D., Cary, Miss., says: "I use Wine of Cardui extensively in my practice and find it a most excellent preparation for female troubles."

A Cure for Lame Back.
"My daughter when recovering from an attack of fever, was a great sufferer from pain in the back and hips," writes Loudon Grover, of Sardis, Ky. "After using quite a number of remedies without any benefit she tried one bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and it has given entire relief." Chamberlain's Pain Balm is also a certain cure for rheumatism. Sold by J. T. Day, Hazel Green.

If Its Worth Printing the Twice-a-Week Courier-Journal Will Print It.
And Every Democrat, Every Republican, Every Man, Woman or Child who can read will want to read it.

 Meantime, we prefer to take our chance with the conservative Democrats, fighting within the party, to reform it of its excesses, and to restore it to its better uses, than to pursue an ignis fatuus which, if it had been more real, would have resulted in the election, instead of the defeat, of the free river fusion in 1896, and which, with singular unanimity, the voters have refused to follow.  THE COURIER-JOURNAL is a Democrat, not a Republican, and it will under no circumstances or conditions pursue a policy whose only effect is to continue the Republican party in power.

THE TWICE-A-WEEK COURIER-JOURNAL is a Democratic paper, of six or eight pages, issued Wednesday and Saturday of each week. The Wednesday issue prints all the Clean News, and the Saturday issue prints Stories, Miscellany, Poetry, all matters of special interest in the home. It is edited by Henry Watterson.

Jonas Vansant recently sold his Red river farm, 4 miles above Hazel Green, to Reese Oldfield and Hollis Gibbs, for $1,000, and on Monday put them in possession.

Frost Wood, of this place, has an ear of corn containing about 1,200 grains, and requests that any farmer who has one to equal it bring the same to THE HERALD office.

Mrs. Nannie Kash, living about a mile below Hazel Green, has engaged Samuel J. Wilson to paint her residence inside and out, and the poet artist left Tuesday to begin the work.

The honest, debt paying citizen that takes THE HERALD hereafter will pay for it in advance, and receive the paper just so long as he has paid for it, but not another issue after.

The wife of Andy Blankenship, who lives on the head of Grassy creek, is quite ill, and her father and mother, W. J. Wallis and wife, were called to see her Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Nannie Kash, who has been visiting relatives and friends in Winchester, Clay City, Powell county, and other points, returned home Saturday, much pleased with her trip.

Now that we have reduced the price of THE HERALD to FIFTY CENTS A YEAR, we shall expect every old subscriber to renew at once, and each bring in one new subscriber.

What greater reward can any man require than the proud consciousness of knowing that he has helped a deserving fellowman? Then have Harlan Roark, a student of Hazel Green academy, shave you and cut your hair whenever you are in need of either. He has a chair in the saddlery shop of John H. Pieratt, where he is prepared to shave and cut hair on Saturday afternoons and evenings, and do the work in first class style. He is ambitious to secure an education, and not having the money to do so, adopts this as a means of paying his way. Many a man who has helped make our state and national laws, earned his education in a similar way, and by patronizing Harlan you may some day—when he becomes a prominent man—have the proud satisfaction of saying, "I helped him to his education, and have never had cause to regret it." Tom Hargis, if we mistake not, blacked boots to pay his way while studying law, and by your aid Harlan may be as great a success as Mr. Hargis.

Miss Ida Murphy, youngest daughter of the late Rev. Isaac Murphy, and Hardin Hurst, of Breathitt county, will be united in the holy bonds of matrimony today at 2 o'clock. Miss Ella Cardwell, of Stillwater, and Frank Murphy, of the Murphy fork, will be attendants, and the ceremony will be performed at the residence of the bride's brother, W. H. Murphy, on the Murphy fork of Grassy. Rev. Mr. Doan, the Congregational minister, will officiate, and after they are pronounced man and wife, the guests will partake of a sumptuous dinner at the scene of the nuptials. This over, the bridal party will at once leave for Frozen creek, Breathitt county, and there be regaled with a repast royal at the residence of the groom's parents, Sam Henry Hurst and wife. Then they will go to housekeeping and spend their honeymoon at home, where they ought to entertain the weekly visits of THE HERALD during their natural lives.

The attention of the merchants of the mountains is respectfully and especially directed to the card of Meyer, Wise & Kaichen, importers and jobbers in dry goods, notions, hosiery, etc., etc., 225-227 Race street, Cincinnati. This firm is one of the best in its line of trade in the metropolis of Ohio, and already enjoys a large and lucrative patronage from the merchants in this part of the state. But pshaw! what's the use of painting a nose gay for Sam Meyer, or scattering the perfume of popularity in his pathway? Nearly every merchant in this neck of the woods knows him and likes him, and those who have dealt with the house say the other gentlemen composing the firm are just as clever as Sam.

The following good joke is told on Dick Phipps. He was whittling on an ax handle Sunday last when some one asked, "Dick, what are you going to do with your ax handle?" "Going to take it over to the shop and fish it," replied Dick. "Why it's Sunday, man," said his friend. "It's Saturday," retorted Dick, and it took the combined evidence of J. T. Day, Fred Day and John Evans to convince him that it was really Sunday. Now if Dick was a worshiper of the wine that is red or any other fluid that addles the brain, he might be excused, but being an ardent teetotler, his temporary aberration of mind is unaccountable, and the boys are carrying him high over it.

Jesse Adams, a valued subscriber of THE HERALD, who lives on the hill this side of Torrent is the head of one of the most remarkably healthy families we have ever heard of. He and his wife were married 38 or 40 years ago, and their union has been blessed with 12 children, all of whom are living. Some of the latter are married, and their progeny numbers 20, all of whom are also living. Thus we have a total of 32 children and grandchildren, and a grand total of 34 living souls, including the parental progenitors, and not a single death has ever marred the family record. Is there in Kentucky another family that can equal it for healthfulness?

Mrs. Mary Nickell, of Lexington, is a guest of her aunt, Mrs. Lou Day, of this place. She was called here by the illness of her mother, Mrs. Lizzie Maxey, who has been here for some time. The numerous friends of "Miss Mary," as she is fondly called, were delighted to see her once more in Hazel Green, and will be sorry to see her leave, which she will some time this week or the first of next, accompanied by her mother.

Wonderful are the cures by Hood's Sarsaparilla and yet it is only because as the one true blood purifier, it makes pure, rich, healthy, life-giving blood.

Hood's Pills for the liver and bowels, act easily, yet promptly. 25c.

The condition of Henry Pieratt was yesterday considered slightly worse than for a few days prior, and inquiry last night, just before going to press, elicited the following reply: "Dear Cooper—Henry's condition remains about the same—possibly a shade better. J. A. Taulbee." He is having every attention possible, and Dr. Thomas, of Esel, is with Dr. Taulbee, constantly at his bedside. We hope, with other friends, to hear of a change for the better today.

John Munsey, who was born and reared in this county, and who lived at this place some 15 years ago, committed suicide at Lagrange one day last week by taking 35 grains of morphine. He had been living in Louisville since he left here, and for the last few years led a very dissolute life. Drink finally drove him to commit the deed which ended in death. He was born on Stillwater.

Roe Nickell, of the Murphy fork, who recently had the misfortune to lose his house by fire, has about completed his new residence on the old site, and those who have seen it say it is a much better and more convenient edifice than the one burned. Nearly everybody living on his creek assisted him in putting up the new building, and he is proud to have such good neighbors.

Only two of the boarders at the home have had the measles, and they contracted them while at their homes. One of them is now well, and the other convalescing. Prof. Cord apprehends no further spread of the disease, and Dr. Taulbee, who had charge of the cases, thinks he has it virtually checked.

No man or woman in Wolfe county, or in the mountains, for that matter, is now too poor to subscribe to THE HERALD. Just think of getting a bright newsy paper every week in the year for less than one cent a week. Can you afford to be without it, when it only costs you FIFTY CENTS A YEAR.

Miss Lizzie Pieratt, daughter of Joe Mc. Pieratt, of the Grassy fork of Blackwater, was taken quite ill Sunday, and is threatened with pneumonia. In consequence her father, who was here attending the bedside of his nephew, Henry F. Pieratt, has been closely confined to his own home.

Boone May, of White Oak, swapped his farm of 125 acres on White Oak creek, Morgan county, to the farm of Henry Shockey, this side of Daysboro, known as "the pines," which contains about 75 acres, more or less, and Mr. Shockey gets $300 to boot.

H. Clay Herndon, recently appointed deputy collector of the Seventh internal revenue district, has written his brother-in-law, John H. Pieratt, that he will move to Mt. Sterling to live within the next month.

Mrs. Rebecca Nickell, wife of W. N. Nickell, and his sister, Miss Sophrona, gave our office a pleasant call Thursday, but were disappointed in not seeing the press at work. They will come again.

Our colored friend, Noah Taylor, requests us to return thanks to the people of Hazel Green, who so kindly ministered to his wants while he was down with rheumatism.

Topics for sermons at the Christian church Sunday are "His Kingdom," at 11 a. m.; and "Something Beyond," at 6:45 p. m.

An Open Letter.

HAZEL GREEN, KY., December 20, 1897.

MR. ————:

Dear Sir: You will please excuse me for intruding on your valuable time, but as I have not had the pleasure of seeing you for some months past, I thought I would once more (perhaps before death) remind you of a solemn occurrence that took place long, long ago. Now, this is a painful duty for me to perform, and perhaps when you receive this sad intelligence your own heart will be burdened with sorrow. But I should keep you in suspense no longer.

In days past and gone you bought of me goods under a solemn promise that payment would be made in a few days. What on earth is the matter? Are you dead, or still living? If dead, write me, and I will donate the amount to the education of your children. But if still living, fulfill your promise. Call and pay what you owe me, and thereby increase your prospects for the Eternal City. Don't let the devil tempt you any longer. But rise up in your manhood and fulfill the teachings of the Holy Writ,

"Owe No Man anything."

Very respectfully,

H. F. PIERATT.

WEDDING BELLS.

Miss Nora Oliver and Mr. Rush O. James Married Sunday.

There was a quiet wedding at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Oliver at 3 o'clock p. m., Sunday, December, 19th, 1897, the contracting parties being Miss Nora Oliver and Mr. Rush O. James. In the presence of the family and immediate relatives of the contracting parties the nuptial knot was tied by Rev. Spriggs, of the Baptist church.

The bride is one of the successful teachers of this county, and at present is employed in a district near home, and will continue until she finishes the present term. She possesses the faculty of making friends and is quite popular with all who know her.

The groom is a young farmer, possessing the grit and determination to make a success of business and has given an evidence of his good judgment in selecting so amiable a young lady to be his wife.

Both are members of good families and have many friends who wish them unalloyed pleasure and a realization of their fondest dreams, and to all this the Courier extends its indorsement, and its congratulations.—Charleston (Ill.) Courier.

The progressive ladies of Westfield, Ind., issued a "Woman's Edition" of the Westfield News, bearing date of April 3, 1896. The paper is filled with matter of interest to women, and we notice the following from a correspondent, which the editors printed, realizing that it treats upon a matter of vital importance to their sex: "The best remedy for croup, colds and bronchitis that I have been able to find is Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. For family use it has no equal. I gladly recommend it." 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by J. T. Day, Hazel Green.

A Spelling Test.

If you can spell every word correctly in the following rhymes—all legitimate expressions—you may consider yourself qualified to enter a spelling bee:

Stand up, ye spellers, now and spell—
Spell phenakistoscope and knell;
Or take some simple word as chilly
Or gauger or the garden lily.
To spell such words as syllogism,
And lachrymose and synchronism,
And Pentateuch and saccharine,
Apocrypha and celadine,
Jepnine and homeopathy,
Paralysis and chloroform,
Rhinoceros and pachyderm,
Metempsychosis, gherkins, basque,
Is certainly no easy task.
Kaleidoscope and Tennessee,
Kamatchatka and erysipelas,
And etiquette and sassafras,
Infallible and pyralism,
Allopathy and rheumatism;
And cataclysm and beleaguer,
Twelfth, eighteenth, rendezvous, intriguer.

And hosts of other words all found
On English and on classic ground.
Thus, Bering Straits and Michaelmas
Thermopylae, jalap, Havana,
Clinguefoil and ipacacuanha,
And Rappahannock and Shenandoah,
And Skutumpah and a thousand more,
Are words some prime good spellers miss

In dictionary lands like this,
Nor need one think himself a scroyle
If some of these his efforts foil,
Nor deem himself undone forever
To miss the name of either river,
The Dneiper, Seine or Guadalquivir.
—Boston Journal.

If you are a true friend of the "dear old HERALD," and we have always so considered you, you will now go to work and help us to get the 1,000 new subscribers which we want added to our list within the next thirty days. Go tell your neighbor the good news and induce him to subscribe. Tell your friends everywhere, and get them to take the paper at FIFTY CENTS A YEAR.

A New Form of Personalities.

The old style of portraying famous people through a "sketch" or "biography" is to be modernized in The Ladies' Home Journal during 1898. Five of the most prominent Americans have been chosen for the departure: President McKinley, Mrs. Cleveland, Mark Twain, Joseph Jefferson, and Thomas A. Edison. Each will have a special article, which will consist of about fifteen or twenty fresh, unpublished stories and anecdotes strung together, each anecdote showing some characteristic trait or presenting a different side of the subject. The idea is to show famous personalities through their own doings and sayings, and, to make these articles accurate the relatives and closest personal friends of the subjects have assisted and given to the Journal the best stories and anecdotes within their own knowledge. Each article will thus represent the closest view of the one sketched. No authorship will be attached to any of the articles.

If YOU happen to be one of those who owe this office, PLEASE come in and pay us. To you it may seem but a small amount, but if all will pay us what they owe we can make the paper a great deal better and not be worried to death over the debts we owe. Come in today and pay up; don't delay it. If

H. C. HERNDON

Appointed Division Deputy By Collector Roberts.

Mr. M. O. Cockrell, of Mt. Sterling, division deputy collector in the Seventh internal revenue district for the last four years, and prospective appointee of Judge Cooper as master commissioner of Montgomery county, has tendered his resignation to Collector Roberts, to take effect at once, and it has been accepted. Mr. Cockrell is one of the best men ever in the revenue service in this district, and he retires with the esteem and good will of all with whom he has been associated. He will make a capital master commissioner, and Judge Cooper is to be congratulated on his selection.

The resignation of Mr. Cockrell has been generally anticipated, and a half dozen worthy Republicans in Eastern Kentucky have been applicants for the place. Owing to the frequent rumors from Washington that the deputy collectors were to be taken out of the civil service classified list on January 1, Collector Roberts had taken no steps to fill the expected vacancy, in order to give all applicants an equal chance to be heard in case the rules were suspended.

On receipt of Deputy Cockrell's resignation to take effect at once, Collector Roberts was compelled to go to the civil service eligible list for his successor, and was fortunate to find at the head of the list of those eligible for deputy collectors the name of Mr. Clay Herndon, of Catlettsburg, a leading Eastern Kentucky Republican, who held the same position under Collector McDowell with credit to himself and worthy chief. Mr. Herndon was commissioned today and enters upon his duties tomorrow.

Mr. Cockrell is the first Seventh district Democratic deputy collector to resign and this is the first vacancy Collector Roberts has had a chance to fill from the civil service eligible list.—Lexington Leader, Jan. 7.

Persons who are troubled with indigestion will be interested in the experience of Wm. H. Penn, chief clerk in the railway mail service at Des Moines, Iowa, who writes: "It gives me pleasure to testify to the merits of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. For two years I have suffered from indigestion, and am subject to frequent severe attacks of pain in the stomach and bowels. One or two doses of this remedy never fails to give perfect relief. A New "Gibson Girl."

A new "Gibson girl," drawn by the famous artist, C. D. Gibson, will make her debut in print as the cover design for the February Ladies' Home Journal. The new "girl" is the artist's own little daughter, who, at one year of age, will be shown as drawn by her clever father. The legend under the picture is "My Valentine."

Neatest, Prettiest and Brightest.

We take pleasure in acknowledging that the HAZEL GREEN HERALD is one of the neatest, prettiest, brightest and best papers in Kentucky, and we don't charge a cent for saying so. It deserves success and will have it.—Beattyville Enterprise.

Considers It a Cure for Disease.

Henry Pieratt, writing from West Liberty, in November, 1887, said: "Send my HERALD on as usual. Without it I could not digest a 'darn' thing I eat; could not sleep sound unless I read it; it drives away the blues and a thousand things too tedious to mention. In fact I consider it a sure cure for consumption, fever and ague, heart disease, headache, &c., &c."

He Knows Whereof He Speaks.

"THE HAZEL GREEN HERALD is putting in some good ticks in behalf of turnpike building in the mountains. We hope that present law makers will give this matter the consideration it merits. The mountain section is rich in minerals and metals, and a system of roads would facilitate the development of this valuable section of the state. Stir them up, Bro. Cooper; we are for you down this way.—Lexington Observer.

"Doing a Commendable Work."

THE HAZEL GREEN HERALD is devoting a great deal of space to the very commendable work of securing good roads. It wants the legislature to appropriate money to build turnpikes in the mountains.—Big Sandy News.

"One of the Ablest and Best Papers in the State."

THE HAZEL GREEN HERALD is making an effort to get the state to build turnpikes in the mountains, * * * and we know of no section where such roads would pay better than in the region which is the home of THE HERALD, one of the ablest and best papers in the state.—Capt. Havens, Sentinel-Democrat.

Neatly Printed and Full of News.

THE HAZEL GREEN HERALD of last week was the neatest printed paper that reached this office. Besides its splendid appearance it is full of news. Mr. Cooper, the proprietor and editor, is a printer from way back, who takes pride in presenting his readers with a neatly printed paper, full of interesting reading matter.—Georgetown News-Enterprise.

"The Best Paper in Eastern Kentucky."

THE HAZEL GREEN HERALD is the best paper in Eastern Kentucky, and business men will find it very useful in commanding profitable trade.—Lexington Transcript.

"The Progressive Editor."

Col. Spencer Cooper, the able, talented and progressive editor of the best newspaper in the mountains, THE HAZEL GREEN HERALD, is in the city mixing with his old friends.
